Application and dues for regular membership may be filed in person with the Recording Secretary at a club meeting. The application will be read at such meeting. It will be read at the next meeting where the applicant is present. The membership will then vote on the applicant's admission. The application and dues for regular OR non-regular membership may also be turned in to a training instructor at a Club training event. The application for a regular membership will then follow the above process at the next meeting in which the applicant is present. In the case of a non-regular membership, the application will be read regardless of the applicant's attendance at the next scheduled meeting. It will be read and voted upon at the next meeting.
